

Camp El-O-Win Summer 2018 Programs

Girl Scout Camping offered by Friends of Camp El-O-Win

Camp El-O-Win is nestled among fir and pine with the sparkling waters of Dinkey Creek running through it. Camp is surrounded by US Forest Service land and is located 15 miles from Shaver Lake and 65 miles from Fresno. This 5,500 foot elevation camp is owned and operated by the Friends of Camp El-O-Win.

CHAPERONES: Campers attending weekend events must be accompanied by an adult chaperone. Chaperones must register to attend. One adult may serve as chaperone for more than one camper.

REGISTER: Go to www.campelowin.org and click on the CAMP tab to register. Registration opens March 1, 2018. All Campers and chaperones must submit a health history and permission slip. If the required forms or final payment are not submitted by the deadline, the camper/chaperone will not be able to attend the event.

Camp El-O-Win 2018 Group Camping

Who can participate? Troops, families, co-workers, Bunco groups, church friends, fitness fanatics, alumnae groups, bike clubs, neighbors, book clubs or school groupies of all ages....spend one or more relaxing days in the beautiful mountains. Explore, hike, play games, enjoy nature, sit and read, draw, stargaze. YOU decide what you want to do and when you want to do it.

When do you want to be at camp? You decide when you want to come and how long you want to stay. You DO NOT have to plan your Group Camp experience at El-O-Win on a weekend. Come during the week Monday – Wednesday, Tuesday to Friday....pretty much when it fits your schedule.

To Register: Print Group Camp Registration Form on the website, www.campelowin.org, complete and return it to Camp El-O-Win, 6533 N. Bungalow Lane, Fresno, CA 93704 with $25 deposit per structure requested.

I'm starving...what's for lunch?

Plan a menu of your favorites. Bring your own food and cooking equipment, and be an outdoor chef!

What is there to do? Each group decides how to fill the hours at camp. Take a hike, explore nature, sing, play volleyball, read, draw, play capture the flag, do a service project, rock hop, climb boulders, do crafts, have a cooking competition, make and fly paper airplanes, do skits, build a shelter or play games. There are lots of fun things to do at Camp El-O-Win!

Swimming – Campers may wade up to their knees without a lifeguard. Swimming in deep water requires a lifeguard. Groups need to arrange for their own lifeguard.

Horseback Riding – Make arrangements for an hour ride at Clyde's Pack Station, ½ mile up Dinkey Creek Road from the El-O-Win turnoff. 559-841-2113. Must be 6 years or older. Weight limit is 225 pounds. You pay Clyde's Pack Station directly.

Adventure Activities (for a modest fee) led by an El-O-Win Certified Instructor.

If we are unable to schedule OUR certified instructor, your group will not be able to participate in the activity.
